

Relationship Between Estimation Error and CI Width

Ideally, CI width should be approximately $2\times$ the error for proper coverage. Points below the diagonal line have wider CIs than needed, points above have narrower CIs than needed for error magnitude.